FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Retail Entrepreneurs hold Grand Opening for Bohicket Chandlery on Easter Weekend

SEABROOK ISLAND, SC – March 7, 2005 – Bohicket Chandlery, a new retail store with a nautical theme located at the Bohicket Marina and Yacht Club, will hold its grand opening on Easter Weekend, March 26 and 27, 2005. Visitors will find a unique collection of luxury nautical accessories, gifts and resort wear for men and women.

Bohicket Chandlery is the latest evidence of rapid commercial expansion taking place in the Seabrook and Kiawah Island area, which includes the multi-million dollar redevelopment of Bohicket Marina and Yacht Club due for completion late spring.

Jonathan Rabon, of Seabrook Island, and Robin Stoney, of John's Island, created Bohicket Chandlery to bring local residents and tourists alike their favorite products for a sea-going or resort lifestyle.

"We are shoppers, I admit it. In fact Robin has raised it to an art form." laughed Jonathan Rabon. "That's how we found the merchandise we carry. Robin and I know what we like. It's what we bring our customers – products that are high quality, good value, useful and beautiful. And some are just fun. We carry items that range from Costa del Mar sunglasses to C. J. Lang and J. McLaughlin resort wear. We also carry Bahamas Palmas cigars, made here in Charleston. Every item in our store has a story behind it."

Bohicket Chandlery is the exclusive distributor for many of the lines they carry including Dubarry Irish handmade boat shoes, Trip Trap Danish teak furniture and accessories and Bohicket Yacht Club branded merchandise.

In conjunction with store development, a Bohicket Chandlery web site, <http://www.bohicketchandlery.com>, is under construction. It will provide customers information and enable them to buy products without visiting the store.

Robin and Jonathan have spent years enjoying sailing, boating and fishing but, surprisingly, they met through their involvement with horses. Robin managed the Seabrook Equestrian Center for over 10 years. Jonathan has worked with Classic Company, the force behind the Charleston and Biltmore Estate Summer Horse Shows among others, since 1994.

“Many of the products we carry are equally suitable for an equestrian lifestyle, like the Henri Lloyd foul weather gear and Trip Trap folding tables and chairs which are perfect for horse show travel,” says Robin Stoney. “The Bohicket Marina and Yacht Club is transforming overnight into a beautiful showplace. We are excited to be part of the vision and make it real.”

Bohicket Chandlery is a purveyor of luxury nautical accessories, gifts & resort wear. For further information, contact Robin Stoney at 843.768.8123.
